

Review of: "Contribution of Indirect Taxes on Goods to Economic Growth of Pakistan (1972-2022)"

Bardhyl Dauti<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> State University of Tetova

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article has everything it needs. It is well presented with well-established coherence on methodological grounds. It has an introduction, literature review, empirical models, and presented methodologies for econometric assessment. Results are in line with previous publications.

I say yes to publishing this manuscript.