Dear Editor,

I have thoroughly reviewed the manuscript entitled "Urban Agroecosystems in Dynamic Yamuna River Sandbars in Delhi, Capital City of India" and find it to be a valuable contribution to the field. The study provides important insights into the urban agroecosystems in dynamic Yamuna River sandbars.

Overall, the manuscript is well-written and structured, and the research conducted appears to be rigorous and scientifically sound. However, I would like to suggest a few minor modifications/explanations to further improve the clarity and impact of the manuscript.
