

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Standard Base Excess Measurement

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Standard Base Excess Measurement. NCI Thesaurus. Code C154721.

A calculated measurement of the amount of acid required to return blood with hemoglobin at 5g/dL, which is used as a surrogate for extracellular fluid, to a normal pH under standard conditions.