Thank you for inviting me to review this article. I want to make some suggestions that may help improve the article.

1. In the introduction part of the study, its main contribution and importance should be explained in more detail.
2. Details of the GWOBA Optimization Algorithm should be given, and it can be supported with a flowchart to make it more understandable. In addition, the analysis of the results obtained from the algorithm should be detailed.
3. The language needs to be thoroughly revised.
