The contribution of this paper is not presented very well in the abstract and conclusion. These need to spend more time in the abstract and conclusion to re-present the paper's novelty.

The explanation of the related work needs to be criticized and improved in general.

All figures are not clear. Clear diagrams and figures are required for readers to have clear images.

Improve the quality of figures for better visibility. It is the blur that should be adjusted.

The conclusion should be more specific with improved writing quality.

The paper does not show any directions for future work to improve and extend the presented research in the conclusion section. A suggestion for future work should be added in the conclusion section.
