

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Non-Statin Antilipidemic Agent

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Non-Statin Antilipidemic Agent. NCI Thesaurus. Code C80482.

A class of agents, other than statins, that are capable of inhibiting absorption of cholesterol, reducing the production and release of LDL from the liver, the release of free fatty acids stored in fat cells, or reducing the production of triglycerides.