

Review of: "ABC Group's Business Continuity Based on Uncertainty Analysis"

Nelson Russo¹

¹ Universidade Aberta Lisboa

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The introduction and Analysis of Uncertainties is lacking more references to validate the concepts and perspectives.

Figure 1 appears without context and a post text about the information presented. Figure 1 is a table.

It should better explain (or rephrased) why a company must change its business model to ensure business continuity, this is a contradiction and not directly related.

This use of may, would, or might reveal uncertainty, can the authors be more specific on what conditions affect.

ABC Group should be characterized by dimension, business sector, information systems, and other relevant things to better understand the IV. Designing the Changes

A Disaster Recovery Plan does not enable the business to continue operating, it allows it to recover the total or part of the systems to be able to resume business.

Table 1 should be presented and diggest perspectives.

The conclusion can be enhanced by referring contributions and future work.