

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Plasmid Cloning Vector

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Plasmid Cloning Vector. NCI Thesaurus. Code C1919.

A plasmid especially designed for cloning of DNA or construction of recombinant DNA molecules. Such a cloning vector will usually have convenient restriction enzyme sites to facilitate the introduction of foreign DNA by ligation.