False Discovery Rate

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. False Discovery Rate. NCI Thesaurus. Code C64214.

A statistical method used for multiple testing corrections to control the expected proportion of false positives (Type I error) among rejected tests or hypotheses. It is less stringent than other mutiple testing corrections and thereby, will allow a percentage of false positives.