

Review of: "African languages and COVID-19: Translations and interpretations of COVID-19 information in rural communities in Igbo land, Nigeria"

Mario Fernando Jojoa Acosta¹

¹ Universidad del Norte

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The paper presents a comparative study and the misunderstanding of the terms related to covid 19 and their translation in African Languages. However, it is mandatory to perform a formal statistical analysis, with an instrument to collect data and to demonstrate, in a statistical way, the proposed implicit hypothesis in the paper. With this formal study and a formal experiment design the knowledge could be generalized and used for further studies.