The research is interesting, and the results could help contribute to the medical field.

- 1) References from 2022 and 2023 are not cited in the manuscript.
- 2) The abstract should emphasize and summarize the main findings more.
- 3) Some grammatical errors were found in the manuscript.
- 4) Lack of a literature review of previous studies.
- 5) Captions of tables and figures must be more specific.
