

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Visual snow syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Visual snow syndrome. ORPHA:420556

Visual snow syndrome is a rare neurologic disease characterized by persistent continuous bilateral visual experience of flickering snow-like dots throughout the visual field in association with other visual (including palinopsia, enhanced entopic phenomena, nyctalopia, photophobia and photopsia) and non-visual (migraine with or without aura, tinnitus and occasionally tremor) symptoms.