

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Isolated Chemotherapeutic Perfusion

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Isolated Chemotherapeutic Perfusion. NCI Thesaurus. Code C15296.

The delivery of chemotherapy to a specific tissue area that is excluded from the general circulation during the period of infusion, which allows for a high concentration of the drug in the tumour area as well as sparing of the rest of the body from the side effects of the drug.