I have reviewed the paper and found it to be very interesting. However, I have some concerns that, if addressed, could enhance the quality of the paper.

1. The paper is quite lengthy; please revise all sections and summarize certain parts. Also, please rewrite the introduction with a focus on the rationale.
2. Could we possibly include some tables in the supplementary materials? There are already many tables within the main body of the paper.
3. I noticed that much of the text lacks citations. Please provide specific and relevant references for each statement.
