

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Myeloid-Derived Suppressor Cell

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Myeloid-Derived Suppressor Cell. NCI Thesaurus. Code C129908.

A population of myeloid cells, mainly dendritic cells, macrophages and neutrophils, that have immunosuppressive activity. During inflammation, chronic infection or cancer, these cells may promote angiogenesis or tumor cell invasion.