

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Endomyocardial Fibrosis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Endomyocardial Fibrosis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34585.

A disease characterized by fibrotic thickening of the endocardium, particularly the right and/or left inflow tracts. The disease often involves the atrioventricular valves, leading to valvular regurgitation. It most commonly occurs in children living within 15 degrees of the equator.