

Open Peer Review on Qeios

NADH Dehydrogenase (Ubiquinone)

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. NADH Dehydrogenase (Ubiquinone). NCI Thesaurus. Code C118184.

A complex of over 40 proteins found in the inner mitochondrial membrane. This protein complex catalyzes the transfer of electrons from NADH to ubiquinone (coenzyme Q10) and plays a role in the initiation of the mitochondrial electron transport chain.