

Review of: "A Review of Informal Employment Research"

Rabeh Morrar¹

¹ An-Najah National University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The review of the informal employment lacks key knowledge about what should be classified as informal employment. There is overlapping between the informal sector, informal economy, and informal employment. Informal economy does not mean informal employment, for example, in many developing countries informal employment flourishes in formal sector and formal economy. Also, the governance of informality is not comprehensive regarding the institutional framework for informal employment and why it widespread in some countries and not in another.