

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Atrasentan Hydrochloride

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Atrasentan Hydrochloride. NCI Thesaurus. Code C1779.

The orally available hydrochloride salt of pyrrolidine-3-carboxylic acid with potential antineoplastic activity. As a selective antagonist of the endothelin-A (ETA) receptor, atrasentan binds selectively to the ETA receptor, which may result in inhibition of endothelin-induced angiogenesis and tumor cell proliferation.