

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Micturation-induced seizures

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Micturation-induced seizures. ORPHA:166430

Micturation-induced seizures is a rare neurologic disease characterized by tonic posturing or clonic movements triggered by micturition, with bilateral or unilateral involvement of the extremities and with or without loss of consciousness. Developmental delay is reported in some cases.