

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Agar Dilution Method

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Agar Dilution Method. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85555.

A method to determine microbial susceptibility to antibiotics in which test bacteria is inoculated onto agar plates with serial dilutions of known quantities of antibiotics. The minimum inhibitory concentration of antibiotic is assessed.