This article is very well written. I would like to suggest some minor improvements.

The abstract is well-written, but it needs to be concise.

Section 2.4 needs to be elaborated in more detail.

There are some typing mistakes in Figure 4; it is written "smendments" instead of "amendments." Please have a look at it.

The section on results is generally very well written, but there are no error bars in figures 5, 6, and 7. Please work on it.

Discussion and conclusion are very well written.
