Comments to the Author

The topic discussed in this article has good research significance but before being published, this work requires correction on the following points.

1. The authors should include major outcomes in the abstract.
2. Provide references to all equations included in the article.
3. All sections and sub-sections should be arranged number-wise.
4. Graphical results should be explain briefly.
5. Updated the literature review with more references on Tsallis entropy.
6. Remove all the grammatical mistakes and typo errors. The manuscript should be revised word by word.
