

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Regional Health Information Organization

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Regional Health Information Organization. NCI Thesaurus. Code C156652.

A group of stakeholders in a given geographic region that govern and share healthcare-related information among them, often electronically, according to accepted healthcare information technology standards.