

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Narrow Band Imaging

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Narrow Band Imaging. NCI Thesaurus. Code C116496.

A high-resolution endoscopic technique that uses two specific wavelengths of blue and green light, chosen for their differing ability to penetrate tissue. These wavelengths are strongly absorbed by hemoglobin and separately visualize both superficial and deeper vasculature.