

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Ovarian Steroid Cell Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Ovarian Steroid Cell Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4215.

An ovarian tumor in which the vast majority of the cells (more than 90% of the tumor cells) resemble steroid hormone-secreting cells. It usually presents with androgenic manifestations. Approximately one-third of the cases follow a malignant clinical course.