

Review of: "Enhancing Veterinary Services for Smallholder Farmers in Zimbabwe: A Comprehensive Literature Review"

Wendy Phillips

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Very interesting and comprehensive literature overview of the history and current state of the veterinary service for smallholder farmers in Zimbabwe. The article clearly shows issues and lacks in the different areas of veterinary service delivery as well as proposes practical suggestions for improvement. Thank you for giving insight in this important topic. As stated in the article similar issues exist in many countries and must be called attention to so solutions can be found and implemented.