

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Vagal Triangle

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Vagal Triangle. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33847.

A triangularly-shaped area that is located in the caudal part of the floor of the fourth ventricle of the brain, between the hypoglossal triangle and the vestibular area; it overlies multiple nuclei, including the vagus, glossopharyngeal, and cranial accessory nerves.