

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Rhinophyma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Rhinophyma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34989.

Progressive enlargement of the nose due to hypertrophy of the sebaceous glands of the tip of the nose and fibrosis. It usually affects older men and is associated with long-standing acne rosacea. It presents as a pink lobulated mass with dilated vessels in the nose.