

Review of: "Auditing public schools' financial records: A study of financial management from the eyes of relevant stakeholders"

Hussein Alrabba¹

¹ Al Yarmouk University College

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The abstract should include the research problem.

The key words should be direct after the abstract.

the researcher should add - from the eyes of relevant stakeholders-to the research questions according to the title.

Clarify the contributions of the research.

Add what is recommended for future studies.

In the future studies recommend to increase the sample

