

Open Peer Review on Qeios

M65-Antigen

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. M65-Antigen. NCI Thesaurus. Code C118181.

An antibody epitope that is part of uncleaved cytokeratin 18 found in blood samples. This antigen may be a biomarker for cell death induced by either alcohol consumption or chemotherapeutics.