

Review of: "Assessing Sex Education Awareness Among Higher Secondary School Students in India"

Helvinder Kaur Balbir Singh¹

¹ Universiti Kuala Lumpur

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Introduction:

- This part of the study can be expanded to a wider scope of background discussing and relating to public health concerns. However, you may consider including on the gap in the literature that this research addresses to better emphasize on the novelty of this study.
- You may address a specific objectives pertaining to this study.
- Please provide research questions for this study.

Methodology:

- Please provide more details on the participants selection criteria and any potential bias that might influence the results.
- Please include information on sample size calculation to ensure the statistical power of the study is justified.
- Urban or rural areas? Why those areas?
- Please include inclusion and exclusion criteria of the sample selection.
- Are the instrument adapted or adopted? - specific name of questionnaires?
- Survey questions can be included as an Appendix
- Consider including a consent form

Discussion:

- No discussion is address to literature to support the interpretation, no citation in the text.

Conclusion:

- Communicate the novelty aspects of this study and the contribution to the field.

This is a good topic and can be expanded especially in comprehensive educational curriculum as a whole. It plays an important role in equipping school students with accurate information about reproductive health, relationships, and responsible behavior.