

Review of: "Leveraging Social Network Utilization to Attain Competitive Advantage in Digital Multi-Sided Platforms"

Fatemeh Saberian

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. reference in the abstract must not be mentioned.
2. In the abstract, the purpose of writing the article, the necessity of writing the article, the research process, research method, findings and results should be mentioned. This abstract lacks these items.
3. Keywords are not related to the topic of the article.
4. The references are old and not updated.
5. At the end of the article, the proposed conceptual framework should be presented in the form of a schematic diagram.
6. In the suggestions section, the researcher must present his own suggestions and there is no need to refer to other articles.
7. Numberings should be corrected. The suggestions are not a literature review.
8. Research methodology has not been mentioned.