Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1- The abstract must focus on the topic of the research.

2- Some paragraphs of the research need a reference >

3-The introduction to the research is inappropriate, so it should be reconsidered (the introduction must contain some details of the work).

4- The researcher reviewed many results without discussing them (some results need scientific discussion).

5- The conclusions are too many; there is no need for such details.
