

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Aggravated Granuloma Annulare

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Aggravated Granuloma Annulare. NCI Thesaurus. Code C9259.

A chronic, inflammatory skin condition characterized by raised, ring shaped eruptions occurring singly or in groups; often on the tops of the hands, feet, elbows, and knees. It is commonly seen in children and young adults, and in women twice as much as men.