

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Tumor Suppressor Gene

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Tumor Suppressor Gene. NCI Thesaurus. Code C17362.

Tumor Suppressor Genes encode proteins whose functions inhibit expression of tumorigenic phenotypes by holding cellular proliferation in check. When inactivated or lost, a barrier to normal proliferation is removed and deregulated growth is possible.
(NCI)