

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Fetal Hydantoin Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Fetal Hydantoin Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98927.

A teratogenic disorder observed in a newborn or child of a mother who was exposed to phenytoin during pregnancy. Manifestations include dysmorphic craniofacial features, hypoplastic distal phalanges and nails, growth delay and delayed psychomotor development.