Dear Authors,

Thank you so much for inviting me to review this wonderful document. Generally, I found it relevant and interesting and believe that it could be publishable for scientific contribution. I have one comment and/or confusion: I know that a policy dialogue is a meeting and discussion of stakeholders in a particular research finding. Therefore, I would recommend you to either change the name to "policy brief" or clarify why you say a policy dialogue. Otherwise, a very wonderful article.

Thank you!
