

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Poland syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Poland syndrome. ORPHA:2911

Poland syndrome is marked by a unilateral absence or hypoplasia of the pectoralis major muscle (most frequently involving the sternocostal portion), and a variable degree of ipsilateral hand anomalies, including symbrachydactyly.