

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Serotonin-Producing Pancreatic Neuroendocrine Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Serotonin-Producing Pancreatic Neuroendocrine Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4446.

A usually slow-growing, grade 1 pancreatic neuroendocrine tumor that secretes serotonin. When it metastasizes to the liver or retroperitoneum, it produces the clinical symptoms of the carcinoid syndrome.