

Review of: "[Research Note] Long COVID in Mexico – Research Efforts"

Francisco Javier Prado-Galbarro¹

¹ Hospital Infantil de México Federico Gómez

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is an important public health problem. My recommendation to the authors would be to write a paper applying meta-analysis with the papers they selected.

It would also be important to know the percentage of patients with severe covid in each of the studies, and observe the differences in the sequelae with patients who did not have severe covid.