

Review of: "Prevalence of Buruli Ulcer Among Residents in Jasikan Municipality: A Cross-Sectional Study"

Samir Das¹

¹ ICAR Research Complex for NEH Region

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The work is schematically carried out and also presented well. The work look small but is significant to a neglected disease. I have some suggestions . The matter in the study site is lengthy especially its last para which can be shortened. One query is there how these 56 respondents diagnosis for buruli ulcer was carried out (laboratory/ hospital etc) need to be elaborated. I must congratulate the author for this nice work