

Review of: "Establishing a Multi-disciplinary Adult Oncology Unit at Muhimbili National Hospital: Lessons Learned, Challenges, and Opportunities Amidst Tanzania's Growing Cancer Burden"

Jeffrey Liu

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Study reports development of an MNH hospital in Tanzania. It is generally descriptive and explains what developed and how. It does not appear to be formal research, just a description of what was done. It is limited in data to support the statements. How many patients were treated before vs. after? What data supports increased access and throughput? Any survival statistics to show improvement?