

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Subepithelial mucinous corneal dystrophy

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Subepithelial mucinous corneal dystrophy. ORPHA:98959

Subepithelial mucinous corneal dystrophy (SMCD) is a very rare form of superficial corneal dystrophy characterized by frequent recurrent corneal erosions in the first decade of life, with progressive loss of vision.