

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Malignant Sertoli-Leydig cell tumor of the ovary

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Malignant Sertoli-Leydig cell tumor of the ovary. ORPHA:99916

Malignant Sertoli-Leydig cell tumor of ovary is a rare malignant sex cord stromal tumor of ovary (see this term) occurring typically in young women and characterized by manifestations of androgen excess (hirsutism, hair loss, amenorrhea, or oligomenorrhea), when functional.