

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Scarf Sign

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Scarf Sign. NCI Thesaurus. Code C89521.

When testing the newborn infant for neuromuscular maturity, the "scarf sign" test is carried out by drawing the newborn's arm across the chest to the opposite shoulder until resistance is felt. In term infants, the elbow should not cross the midline of the chest.