

Review of: "[Review] Criminology review of the crime of gambling case in Batam City"

Marjon Malacapay

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The abstract's first two sentences may be rewrite to establish the gap of literature.

I am suggesting that the construct of gambling must be establish first more than others. Thus, global issues must be discussed and presented prior to gambling problems being faced by the country under study. In this way, the problem is contextualized religiously.

The method/s used is not clear. Please clarify what qualitative design did you used. Also, discuss the selection process and inclusion criteria you have used to determine your participants.