

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Congenitally uncorrected transposition of the great arteries

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Congenitally uncorrected transposition of the great arteries. ORPHA:860

Congenitally uncorrected transposition of the great arteries (congenitally uncorrected TGA), also referred to as complete transposition, is a congenital cardiac malformation characterized by atrioventricular concordance and ventriculoarterial (VA) discordance.