

Open Peer Review on Qeios

N(6)-(1-Carboxyethyl)Lysine

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. N(6)-(1-Carboxyethyl)Lysine. NCI Thesaurus. Code C120011.

A lysine derivative found in proteins where the epsilon nitrogen of the amino acid residue is modified by a carboxyethyl group. This advanced glycation end product (AGE) is elevated in certain diseases and may be associated with aging.