A Review of Informal Employment Research

Recast the title to: A Review of literature on Informal Employment

Abstract Recast the first statement so that statement cannot start with

The informal sector, informal economy,: is there any difference between them? If not make reference to the terminologies used by different authors and why and show they both mean same thing

3"You can use the role of informal employments and its effects instead of impacts

List and examine some of government regulations on informal sector

Informal employment in rural space may include mining, processing of different agricultural produce, transportation, local contactors like unregistered builder etc so you can add them with relevant literature.

The revised work can reflect women experience on informal economic activities

The work lacks opinion or recommendations on how to improve the informal sector
